[tick one of the following cases indicated]

- the data subject disputes the accuracy of the personal data;
- the processing is unlawful and the data subject opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of use instead;
- the controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but it is required by the data subject for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- the data subject has objected to processing pursuant to Article 21(1) pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the controller override those of the data subject.

- the right to object to the processing of personal data that concerns him/her pursuant to Art. 21 of the Regulation in the event that:

[tick one of the following cases indicated]

- the processing is necessary for pursuing the legitimate interests of the Controller or of third parties, including for the purposes of profiling;

[give reasons for the request by filling in the box for additional information below]

.....

.....

.....

- this data is processed for the purposes of direct marketing, including profiling to the extent that it is connected to direct marketing.

- the right to withdraw consent, pursuant to Arts. 7, 13 and 14 of the Regulation, previously supplied for the purposes specified below:

[indicate the reasons for treatment for which the consent has been withdrawn by filling in the additional information box below]

.....

.....

The undersigned is aware that objecting to the processing and/or the withdrawing of the consent provided previously for the above purposes will not entail the erasure of the personal data by the Controller where such data has been collected and is processed based on other legal grounds (e.g. performance of contractual obligations).
